My Hair is Scraggly

Do you like it? Then why be contented with it? Have to be? Oh, no! Just put on Ayer's Hair Vigor and have long, thick hair; soft, even hair. But first of all, stop your hair from coming out. Save what you have. Ayer's Hair Vigor will not disappoint you. It feeds the hair-bulbs; makes weak hair strong.

The best kind of a testimonial—

The regular meeting of Brown Relief Corps will be this Wednesday evening. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. Z. Durkee was thrown from his carriage recently and suffered the fracture of two ribs. He is improving slowly.

Mr. Beards returned to his home in Helton Saturday afternoon, accompanied by his wife who came up Saturday morning.

Mrs. H. M. Farwell and two children are visiting Mrs. Farwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Pratt in Cambridge, Mass.

Mrs. Estella York, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Grover, returned to her home in Somersworth, N. H., Friday.

The annual election of officers of the Columbian Club for the ensuing year will be held at the home of Mrs. Moses Hastings Friday afternoon at three o'clock.

Mr. Harold Pearson and Miss Alice French drove over from Rumford Falls Saturday to visit Miss French's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. French. They returned to Rumford Falls Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Joseph B. Rich of New York, who recently purchased the Baker place at Bangs Pond, has been in town the past week arranging for various improvements in connection with the place. Mr. Rich is in the postage stamp business in New York, being treasurer of the Scott Stamp and Coin Co. The firm manufactures stamp albums, also buys and sells stamps. Mr. Rich tells us that not infrequently they pay as high as $1,000 for a single stamp, while some are eagerly sought after at $250.

The Oxford county W. O. T. U. will hold the annual convention with the Norway Union May 22nd and 23rd. Some of the interesting features of the program will be a paper, "What and Why," by Rev. Isabelle S. Macdonald of West Paris; address by State "Y" Sec. Miss Ella E. Merrill; children's hour address by Rev. L. Alfred Brewster, and the address in the evening by Mr. Gertrude Stevens Leavitt, daughter of the state and national president. Mrs. Ira Jordan and Mrs. Ida Godwin were chosen delegates by the Bethel Union.

Mrs. J. H. Chapman, who has been quite feeble for the past few months, died at her home on Church street Monday night. Mrs. Chapman has not enjoyed good health for the past two years, but has been able to be about and attend to her household duties except for several weeks during the past winter, when she was quite feeble. She rallied, however, and was able with such assistance as Mr. Chapman could give her to do her work. On Monday afternoon while working about the house, she was taken suddenly ill and had to be assisted to her room by Mr. Chapman. She shortly became unconscious and remained so to the last. Mr. Chapman, who himself is left in a feeble condition and alone, has the heartfelt sympathy of the community. Personal services will be held at Mr. Chapman's home on Thursday afternoon at one o'clock.

INFANT'S BODY IN SHORTS SACK

Found By Children--Suddenly Disappears.

The village was set somewhat astir last Sunday morning by the announcement that the body of an infant had been found concealed in a shorts sack in the Scrimmer pasture on Mill street in Bethel.

The story goes that children in that neighborhood while digging dandelions discovered a shorts sack from which an offensive odor came. The mother of the children was summoned and declared that upon investigation she found the body of an infant which appeared to have been there for several weeks. She further states that on Saturday evening she went to the village to notify coronor E. C. Staples but did not find him. She sought to notify officer H. C. Barker, but could not find him whereupon she rested her effort until Sunday morning, when upon investigation it was found that the body had been removed.

The case is a peculiar one and many are inclined to doubt whether or not the body of an infant was really discovered, while those who have made the investigation are confident that the woman has told the truth and that the sack did contain such a body when found.

Through persistent investigation some light has been obtained by Staples and Barker and the mystery may yet be solved.

NOT A CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER.

Sen. Hastings Does Not want to Fill L. T. Carleton's Shoes.

The announcement that Senator H. Hastings of Bethel was a candidate for the position of fish and game commissioner to succeed Leroy T. Carleton, whose term expires July 1st, caused a great deal of surprise until the incorrectness of the story was established. In the Lewiston Journal of May 16th appeared the following:

"Hon. Henry H. Hastings of Bethel announces his candidacy to succeed Hon. L. T. Carleton of Winthrop on the fish and game commission. If the new candidate shall be backed by the grange and by the friends of the merit system, the governor will be relieved from being further committed to the unhappy law of political heredity."

The fact is that Senator Hastings is not a candidate for fish and game commissioner, but is candidate for reelection to the Senate, and hopes to become president of that body next session. His candidacy for that honor having been announced last winter at Augusta.

It appears that some one wrote a letter to Augusta suggesting that Senator Hastings would be a good man for chairman of the fish and game commission, now held by L. T. Carleton, and in that way it reached the press that he had announced his candidacy for the office.

Senator Hastings desires the office of fish and game commissioner, he would have the united endorsement of the influential men of Oxford county where Senator Hastings is highly regarded and esteemed as one of the rising young men of Maine, whose future opens brightly before him. But Senator Hastings will be sent back to the Senate and his further ambition is to provide over the deliberations of that body next session.

Respectful prominent men of Oxford county are now making a canvass of his candidacy for reelection as fish and game commissioner, and stating that his term expires July 1st. While Mr. Carleton has been known in Oxford county, there is a decided opposition to him expressed, and a looking forward to his removal. It is believed the matter recently stated by Senator Hastings will stand as a card of protest against Mr. Carleton. I will take my seat and devote a fortnight to his canvass in Oxford county without any hope at this time. I am against the proposition of Carleton because I don't believe in graft in any form, and under his regime has been built up the most elaborate system of graft.

Among the candidates for the office are Frank H. Briggs of Auburn

Tired Nervous Women Make Unhappy Homes

MRS. GEO. A. JAMES

MRS. GEO. A. JAMES

I suffered so I did not care what became of me, and my family despaired of my recovery. Physicians failed to help me. I was urged to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I want to tell you that it has entirely cured me. I think it is the finest medicine on earth and I am recommending it to all my friends, and acquaintances.

Mrs. Geo. A. James, a life long resident of Fredonia, N. Y., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham-- "I was a terribly poor condition and had nervous depression caused by female trouble, in fact I had not been well since my children were born. This condition worked on my nerves and I was irritable and miserable. I had tried many remedies, but getting much help but Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound brought me back to health and strength. It has also cured me safely through the Change of Life. I cannot too strongly recommend your medicine."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.
Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to communicate promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and mpound, made from native roots and drugs and today holds the record for female diseases of any medicine the eds of voluntary testimonials are on which testify to its wonderful value.

As the automobile season approaches and all automobilists are looking forward to the pleasure which the season has in store for them, and the would be automobilist is trying to decide whether this shall be the glad season when he will join the list or not, and if so just what machine shall be his we are pleased to announce that we have taken the agency for the MAXWELL in Oxford County except at Rumford Falls and that we shall have a 1907 touring car ready for demonstration as soon as the roads will allow.

There are many superior points about the Maxwell which need not be mentioned here; in fact space would not allow even a brief mention of the strong features of this machine; so please note that it will be to your advantage to get into communication with us and let us acquaint you with the Maxwell.

ANDOVER.
George O. Huse died in Methuen on Tuesday, May 7th. We have taken the following account of his life from a Methuen paper:

This afternoon the last sad rites over the body of George O. Huse of 20 Merrill street were witnessed by a number of friends and his relatives. The deceased passed away Tuesday after a very sudden illness. The cause of death was pneumonia. He had been in ill health for the past year but was able to be about during that time. He was taken suddenly ill Sunday with pneumonia and passed away Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Berwick of Methuen was in attendance.

Georgeance. George D. Huse is the last surviving member of the Huse family of Methuen, his father being the old well known resident Dr. Huse, who passed away about the time of the Civil War. His brother, Stephen, Warwick Huse was the editor of "Vox Populi," a newspaper of Lowell. The family was one of the oldest of the town and the deceased was most highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. He served three years in the Civil War in a D. heavy artillery of Methuen, Col. Greene of this town in command. He was born in this town and resided here up to about 29 years ago when he left here and took residence in Andover, Me., and returned to this town about one year ago. The surviving relatives are a wife, Mary, and an adopted daughter, Velasquez. Prayers were read at the home at 1:30 p. m., services being held in the Congregational chapel, the Rev. Mr. Oliphant, officiating. Burial was in Walnut Grove Cemetery. The bearers were Sidney Poore, William Barnes, James Hiral and Samuel Turkington. The deceased was 71 years of age, and he chose his own bearers one year ago, feeling that he would not live very long.

A very pleasant and interesting entertainment was given at the Town hall last Monday, May 10th, by the senior class of Andover High School. When children are cross, irritable and peevish it does not signify that they have had worms! It shows that there is something wrong with the child which it is not able to explain, and which the mothering Blue Ointment cannot easily cure. Mothers, when your child has symptoms of cross, peevish, nervous, grates the teeth, frets him, picks the nose, has variable appetite or bowels, cries, or suffers with colic or headache, is irritable and restless, has turned tongue or other signs, you may be sure that child is troubled with worms, which cause nearly all the ill of childhood.

Don't delay—obtain at once, and take a few doses of the wonderful old-time remedy—

DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR

Will give your children that vigorous health which is so important to their future happiness. Dr. J. F. True's Elixir cures the worms, if there are enough, not to cure of a peevish temper and then it makes them all weak matter from the stomach and stomach, takes and strengthens the entire system of children and makes them as children. Dr. J. F. True's Elixir is a safe cure, thoroughly tested and has been the standard household remedy for fifty years longer than any other for all diseases, get your True's Elixir from your druggist and their "Morse's."

Shelter the Brooder.
When the weather in the spring has become mild enough to put the brooder out of doors, some follow the plan of protecting it with a small portable brooder house. The bad effects of cold winds and storms are thus prevented. These same brooder houses may be used later on in the season to protect the chicks from the heat of the sun. After the chicks become too large to stay in the brooder they will use this house for roosting, where they will be protected from wind and from predatory rodents.

Fasting Flocks.
A commercial bander of poultry says that all flocks should be fasted from 21 to 34 hours before killing. When the birds are permitted to eat together with food before the killing time, the food decomposes in the intestines and intestines. From this the flock frequently becomes tainted.
